INNOVATIVE RADIO DEVICES AND RADI-
OSYSTEMS, OUTSTANDING DESIGN AND
A SOUND, THAT MEETS THE HIGHEST RE-
QUIREMENTS: THIS IS WHAT PALONA
STANDS FOR. THE DESIGNERS PROF. BERN-
HARD GEISEN, JAKAB BARNA AND MAR-
TIN SACH MET TOGETHER WITH SWISS
ENGINEERS AND DEVELOPED INNOVA-
TIVE SOUNDSYSTEMS FOR THE HIGHEST
STANDARDS. THEIR NAMES: QUUBI, JOJO
AND TUNER 190 C. THEIR MISSION: GLAS-
SCLEAR SOUND ON A HIGHEND LEVEL.

SOUNDSYSTEM QUUBI

SOUNDSYSTEM JOJO

RADIOSYSTEM TUNER 190 C

Three soundsystems, three characters, one signature: sound and design in line.

The QUUBI has been awarded with the "Plus-X" Design-Award in the catagories high quality, design and ease of use. The hand polished highend design object with its 60 watt music power scales over seven kilogramm. Concentrated power in a cube with 25 cm edge length, easy to use, with remote control or app.

Thanks to multiroom function you can synchronize severeal QUUBIs. Wether you want to play music from your mobile phone, a music server or an usb-stick or even use it as a soundbar for your TV: The QUUBI is more than worth it!

TALENTED POWER PACKAGE

FROM A TABLE CLOTH SCETCH TO A HIGHEND CUBE

How does the perfect cube form look like for a radio? The kind of geometry is easy, the way there is quite complex – because everyone has a different answer to that question. How is the setting of each control button, where does the music come from, how big is the cube supposed to be? Many participants result in many answers: At a dinner together with Bernhard Geisen and fellow companions in an italian restaurant the answers were gathered together with a ball pen: a scetch on a table cloth – that at the end of the evening also appeared on the invoice.

This table cloth served as a blueprint for more than 30 further drafts until the designer team around Bernhard Geisen, Jakab Barna and Martin Sach agreed on the form of the QUUBI of today. To be honest, only the form of the cube of the first sketch at the Italian restaurant survived the way to the QUUBI. It has emancipated and advanced itself. And his forefather, Bernhard Geisen, is proud of his achievement. A longstanding dream came true in form and sound - way over Ein jahrelanger Traum ist in Form und Sound in Erfüllung gegangen – well beyond his own expectations.

COMFORTABLE STREAMING WONDER

A masterpiece, that unites simplicity, quality and technic: The TUNER 190 C is self-explanatory in its handling and upgrades every existing stereo system with a variaty of multifunctional possibilities. Hearing music from the mobile phone via Bluetooth, using streaming services like Deezer or Amazon music, having a direct access for Spotify – all this is possible, nothing has to. With the clear remote control the menue points and favourite programms can be easily controlled, the free UNDOK-App operates the TUNER 190 C in the whole network. The TUNER 190 C likes it simple!
